

NEWS BULLETIN

5th November 2019

Welcome

Parents; welcome to our weekly news bulletin. Here we will post updates regarding events in Scoil Fhursa. Please check the parents page on our school website regularly for new information.

Kind regards,

Noreen Duggan
Principal

Substitute

On Thursday 7th & Friday 8th November, Ms. O'Keeffe will be attending a training course. A substitute teacher will be employed in her classroom for this period.

Parent Teacher Meetings

PT meetings will take place in the coming weeks. Timetables will be available from Thursday 7th November. Please contact the office to make an appointment.

Board of Management

Thank you to Norah O' Riordan and J.P Chambers who will become parent nominees to the Board of Management on December 1st 2019. We are grateful to them for joining the team.

Work Experience

On Monday, 2 of our past pupils, Noah Walsh and Katrina Obrezane will join us for a week of Transition Year Work Experience. We hope that they will enjoy their time working with us.

Science Week

Next week is Science Week. On Tuesday 12th November the senior classes will enjoy a forensic science Workshop at the school. Later in the week, the senior classes will introduce the younger children to science experimenting with a demonstration in the hall.

Book Fair

A book fair will be held in the school from November 19th – 26th. Details on how to purchase books will be forwarded to parents shortly.

Aldi School's Rugby

Thank you to all parents and the wider community for supporting our appeal for Aldi stickers. We collected 600 stickers overall and will now enter into a draw for sports equipment to the value of €50,000.00

Credit Union Art Competition

Congratulations to Aoife Casey & Sara Connolly who recently won prizes in the Credit Union Art Competition.
