

NEWS BULLETIN

3rd December 2019

Parents,

Staff Training

On Monday December 2nd Ms. Duggan attended training by the National Educational Psychological Service on 'Effective Interventions for Struggling Readers'.

On Monday December 9th, Scoil Fhursa will be closed to all pupils so that staff can attend in-service training on the new Primary Language Curriculum and its implementation in primary schools.

Community Tree Lighting

By now, you should all have heard about the lighting of the Community Christmas Tree and the Christmas gathering in Lyre Community Centre on December 6th at 7p.m.

Children from our school will be singing some carols on the night. They may wear Christmas jumpers, Santa hats etc. The more festive the better!

Looking forward to seeing you all there on the night.

Christmas Mass

The annual Christmas mass for Scoil Fhursa Lyre will take place on December 19th in St. Joseph's Church, details will follow.