

Important Advice received from HSE Advice Line

September 8th 2020

The following advice was received this morning from the HSE Coronavirus Advice line, in relation to returning to school following a Covid-19 test

If your child is referred for a Covid-19 test and receives a negative result, they must not return to school until their original symptoms have completely resolved

Siblings of children with negative results may return to school as long as they are not showing any of the symptoms of Covid-19

If you are in any doubt about whether to send your child to school, please err on the side of caution. Advice can be sought from the HSE helpline on
